

2019 ANNUAL FORUM PROGRAM

“DELIVERING PUBLIC PURPOSE WORK IN THE NEXT ECONOMY”

Time	Session
8.00am	Registration Opens
8.45am	Open and Welcome – Martin Stewart-Weeks , MC, Public Purpose Pty Ltd
8.55am	Acknowledgement of Country
9.00am	The profession of public purpose work Robert Setter , IPAA Queensland President
9.15am	Keynote presentation – Reimagining the world of public purpose Thomas King , social entrepreneur, future food specialist and 2015 Young Victorian of the Year
	Table talk – It’s your turn to lead the conversation
10.25am	Get ready – Public purpose partnerships Ben Schramm, Cube Group Pty Ltd
10.35am	Morning tea
11.00am	The future in action – Delivering public purpose work in place Case studies
11.45am	Panel discussion – Facilitated by Martin Stewart-Weeks , Public Purpose Pty Ltd with Jo Sheppard , University of Southern Queensland; Michael Eales (Business Models Inc) and case study speakers
12.25pm	Lunch
1.20pm	Afternoon Session Commences
1:45pm	In Conversation – Place rediscovered: Citizens, politics and public purpose Annabel Crabb , writer, journalist and broadcaster and Anne Tiernan , Griffith University
3.10pm	Afternoon tea
3.40pm	Panel discussion – Myths and realities of public purpose partnerships Facilitated by Ben Schramm , Cube Group Pty Ltd with Lisa Siganto , QUT and Shorebirds; Adam Fennessy , EY and Karyn Walsh , Micah Projects
4.40pm	So what? Robert Setter , IPAA Queensland President and Queensland Public Service Commission Chief Executive
4.50pm	Delivering public purpose work – Summary, next steps and close Martin Stewart-Weeks , MC